Ngarinyin Lawwoman and internationally renowned Aboriginal artist, Yvonne Burgu, presented the original painting to the Zonta Club of Perth in appreciation of the efforts of the club to establish a long-term relationship with her community. In 2004 Yvonne was invited by the United Nations to speak at the closing ceremony of the 'Decade of World Indigenous Cultures' in Geneva and she was also commissioned by the UN to paint the banner which hung in the main entrance hall of the UN throughout the ceremony. Yvonne's paintings have been exhibited in Paris, Geneva and major galleries throughout Australia.

The A6 size blank greetings cards of this exquisite painting are printed on high quality card and are sealed in plastic pouches to keep them in good condition. Proceeds from the sale of the cards will go towards service projects to benefit the Ngarinyin community in the Kimberley region of Western Australia.
